Civil Action No. 13-668-RGA

ORDER

Plaintiff has filed a “Motion for Supplemental Markman Submissions.” (D.I. 70 in No. 13-664-RGA).¹ Defendants oppose, stating that supplemental submissions are unnecessary. (D.I. 70 at 2 n.1; see D.I. 71). I agree with Defendants. I do not think further submissions are necessary. The parties have already had the chance to argue, in writing and orally, the evidence, both intrinsic and extrinsic. Whether I would characterize my analysis as factual or legal, or whether the Court of Appeals would so characterize, is not an issue on which further submissions would be helpful. Thus, I will DENY the motions in each case.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 23rd day of February 2015.

United States District Judge

¹ The same pleadings have been filed in all four cases. For ease of reference, citations are only to the docket in No. 13-664-RGA.
